

ORDER 15 B

Judgment on Point of Law

- (1) The courts may upon the application of a party or of its own motion determine any question of law or facts, or construction of any document arising in any cause or matter at any stage of the proceedings where it appears to the court that
 - a) Such question is suitable for determination without full trial;
 - b) Such determination will finally determine (subject only to a possible appeal) the entire cause or matter or any claim or issue therein; and
 - c) Facts of the case and application of law are identical to a case already decided by the Superior Courts or Practice Directions.
- (2) Upon such determination the court may pass a judgment.
- (3) Provided that no judgment shall be passed unless the parties to the suit are given opportunity of hearing.
