High Court of Himachal Pradesh Case Flow Management (Subordinate Courts) Rules, 2005

HIGH COURT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH, SHIMLA-171001

No. HHC/Rules/C.P.ADR/05-

Dated 19.12.2005

NOTIFICATION

HIGH COURT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH CASE FLOW MANAGEMENT (SUBORDINATE COURTS) RULES, 2005

In exercise of the powers conferred by Part X of the Code of Civil Procedure 1908, (5 of 1908), Section 29 of Himachal Pradesh Courts Act, 1976 (23 of 1976) and all other powers enabling it, the High Court of Himachal Pradesh hereby makes the following Rules, in regard to case flow management in the subordinate courts in the State of Himachal Pradesh.

Title	1	 These Rules shall be called High Court of Himachal Pradesh Case Flow Management (Subordinate Courts) Rules, 2005. These Rules shall come into force from the date of publication in the official gazette.
Division of Civil	2	1) Based on the nature of dispute, the Suits and appeals		quantum of evidence to be recorded into tracks		and the time likely to be taken for the completion of suit, the suits shall be channeled into different tracks. Track 1 may include suits for maintenance, divorce and child custody and visitation rights, grant of letters of administration and succession certificate and simple suits for rent or for eviction (upon notice under Section 106 of Transfer of Property Act). Track 2 may consist of money suits and suits based solely on negotiable instruments. Track 3 may include suits concerning partition and like property disputes, trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property matters. Track 4 may relate to other matters. All efforts shall be taken to complete the suits in track 1 within a period of 9 months, track 2 within 12 months and suits in track 3 and 4 within 24 months.

Note:- It will be for the judge concerned to make an appropriate assessment as to which track any case can be assigned.

- 2) Once in a month, the administrative staff of each Court shall prepare a report as to the stage and progress of cases which are proposed to be listed in next month and place the report before the Court. When the matters are listed on each day, the Judge concerned may take such decision as he may deem fit in the presence of counsel/parties in regard to each case for removing any obstacles in service of summons, completion of pleadings etc. with a view to make the case ready for disposal.
- 3) The Judge referred to in clause (2) above may shift a case from one track to another depending upon the complexity and other circumstances of the case.
- 4) Where computerization is available, the monthly data will be fed into the computer in such a manner that the judge referred to in clause (2) above, will be able to ascertain the position and the stage of every case in every

- track from the computer screen. Over a period, all cases pending in his Court will be covered. Where computerization is not available, the monitoring must be done manually.
- 5) The judge referred to in clause (2) above, shall monitor and control the flow or progress of every case, either from the computer or from the register or data placed before him in the above manner or in some other manner he may innovate.

ORIGINAL SUIT

Fixation of time limits while issuing notice

- The following time limits while issuing notice shall be observed.
 - (a) Wherever notice is issued in a suit, the notice should indicate that the Code prescribes a maximum of 30 days for filing written statement (which for special reasons may be extended up to 90 days) and, therefore, the defendants may prepare the written statement expeditiously and that the matter will be listed for that purpose on the expiry of eight weeks from the date of issue of notice (so that it can be a definite date). After the written statement is filed, the replication (if any, proposed permitted), should be filed within six weeks of receipt of the written statement. If there are more than one defendant, each one of the defendants should comply with this requirement within the time limit.

- (b) The notice referred to in clause (a) shall be accompanied by a complete copy of the plaint and all its annexure/enclosures and copies of the interlocutory application, if any.
- (c) If interlocutory applications are filed along with the plaint, and if an exparte interim order is not passed and the Court is desirous of hearing the respondent, it may, while sending the notice along with the plaint, fix an earlier date for the hearing of the application (than the date for filing written statement) depending upon the urgency for interim relief.

Service of Summons/notice and completion of pleadings

In this connection the following guidelines shall be observed:

- (a) Summons may be served as indicated in clause (3) of Rule 9 of Order V of Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.
- (b) In the case of service of summons by the plaintiff or a courier where a return is filed that the defendants has refused notice, the return will be accompanied by an undertaking that the plaintiff or the courier, as the case may be, is aware that if the return is found to be false, he can be punished for perjury or summarily dealt with for contempt of Court for abuse of the provisions of the Code. Where the plaintiff comes forward with a return of 'refusal' the provisions of Order 9A Rule (4) CPC will be followed by re-issue of summons through Court.

(c) If it has not been possible to effect service of summons under Rule 9 of Order V CPC, the provisions of Rule 17 of Order V CPC shall apply and the plaintiff shall within 7 days from the date of its inability to serve the summons, to request the Court to permit substituted service. The dates for filing the written statement and replication, if any, shall accordingly stand extended.

Calling of Cases (Hajri) or Call Work or Roll Call

The present practice of the Reader calling all the cases listed on a particular day at the beginning of the day in order to confirm whether counsel are ready, whether parties are present or whether various steps in the suit or proceeding has been taken, is consuming a lot of time of the Court, sometimes almost two hours of the best part of the day when the judge is fresh. After such work, the Court is left with very limited time to deal with cases listed before it. Formal listing should be first before a senior officer of the Court to be nominated by the District Judge respect of each court under administrative control, one or two days before the listing in Court. He may give dates in routine matters for compliance with earlier orders of Court. Cases will be listed before Court only where an order of the Court is necessary or where an order prescribing the consequences of default or where peremptory order or an order as to costs is required to be passed on the judicial side.

Cases which have to be adjourned as a matter of routine for taking steps in the suit or proceeding should not be unnecessarily listed before Court. Where parties/counsel are not attending before the court officer or are defiant or negligent, their cases may be placed before the Court. Listing of cases on any day before a Court should be based on a reasonable estimate of time and number of cases that can be disposed of by the Court in a particular day. The Courts shall, therefore, dispense with the practice of calling all the cases listed adjourned to any particular day. Cases will be first listed before a nominated senior officer of the Court, nominated for the purpose.

Procedure on the grant of interim orders

The following guidelines shall be observed by the subordinate Courts:-

- (a) If an interim order is granted at the first hearing by the Court, the defendants would have the option of moving appropriate applications for vacating the interim order even before the returnable date indicated in the notice and if such an application is filed, it shall be listed as soon as possible even before the returnable date.
- (b) If the Court passes an ad-interim exparte order in an interlocutory application, and the reply by the defendants if filed, and if, thereafter, the plaintiff fails to file the rejoinder (if any) without good reason for the delay, the Court has to consider whether the stay or interim order passed by the Court should be vacated and shall list the case with that purpose. This is meant to prevent parties taking adjournment with a view to have undue benefit of the ad-interim orders. The plaintiff may, if he so chooses, also waive his right to file a rejoinder. A communication of option by the plaintiff not to file a rejoinder, made to the Court Officer will be deemed to be the completion of pleadings in the interlocutory application.

Reference to	7	In the hearing before the Court, after
Alternate Dispute Resolution		completion of pleadings, time limit for discovery and inspection, and admission and denials, of documents shall be four weeks. After the completion of admission and denial of documents by the parties, the suit shall be listed before the Court (for examination of parties under Order X of the Civil Procedure Code. A joint statement of admitted facts shall be filed before the said date). The Court shall thereafter, follow the procedure prescribed under the Alternative Dispute Resolution and Mediation Rules, 2002.
Procedure on the failure of Alternate Dispute Resolution	8	1) On the filing of report by the Mediator under the Mediation Rules that efforts at Mediation have failed or a report by the Conciliator under the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, or a report of no settlement in the Lok Adalat under the provisions of the Legal Services Authority Act, 1987 the suit shall be listed before the Court Officer within a period of 14 days. At

- the said hearing before the Court Officer, all the parties shall submit the draft issues proposed by them. The suit shall be listed before the Court within 14 days thereafter for framing of issues.
- 2) When the suit is listed after failure of the attempts at conciliation, arbitration or Lok Adalat, the judge may merely inquire whether it is still possible for the parties to resolve the dispute. This should invariably be done by the judge at the first hearing when the matter comes back on failure of conciliation, mediation or Lok Adalat.
- 3) If the parties are not keen about settlement, the Court shall frame the issues and direct the plaintiff to start examining his witnesses. The procedure of each witness filing his examinationin-chief affidavit and being examined in cross or re-examination will continue, one after the other. After completion of evidence on the plaintiffs side, the defendants shall lead evidence likewise, witness after witness, the chief examination of each witness being by affidavit and the witness being then cross-examined or re-examined. The parties shall keep the affidavit in chief examination ready whenever the witness's examination is taken up. As far as possible, evidence must be taken up day by day as stated in clause (a) of proviso to Rule 2 of Order XVII. The parties shall also indicate the likely duration for the evidence to be completed, and for the arguments to be thereafter heard. The judge ascertain the availability of time of the Court and will list the matter for trial on a date when the trial can go on from day to day and conclude the evidence. The possibility of further negotiation and settlement should be kept open and if such a settlement takes place, it should be open to the parties to move the Court Officer for getting the matter listed at an earlier date for disposal.

Reference to Commissioner for recording of evidence

Regarding referring the matter for recording of evidence to the Commissioner, the following instruction shall be observed:-

- (a) The High Court shall after conducting an examination of eligible advocates on the subjects of the Code of Civil Procedure and Evidence Act, shall appoint them as Commissioners for recording evidence. They shall be ranked according to the marks secured by them in such examination.
- (b) It is not necessary that in every case the Court should appoint Commissioner for recording evidence. Only if the recording of evidence is likely to take a long time, or there are any other special grounds, should the consider Court appointing а Commissioner for recording the evidence. The Court should direct that the matter be listed for arguments fifteen days after the Commissioner files his report with the evidence.

Note:- The Court may initially fix a specific period for the completion of the recording of the evidence by the Commissioner and direct the matter to be listed on the date of expiry of the period, so that Court may know whether the parties are co-operating with the Commissioner and whether the recording of evidence is getting unnecessarily prolonged.

(c) Commissioners should file an undertaking in Court upon their appointment that they will keep the records handed over to them and those that may be filed before them, safe and shall not allow any party to inspect them in the absence of the opposite party/counsel. If there is delay of more than one month in the dates fixed for recording evidence, it is advisable for them to return the file to the Court and take it back on the eve of the adjourned date.

Costs

So far as awarding of costs at the time of judgment is concerned, awarding of costs must be treated generally as mandatory in as much as the liberal attitude of the Courts in directing the parties to bear their own costs had led parties to file a number of frivolous cases in the Courts or to raise frivolous and unnecessary issues. Cost should invariably follow the event. Where a party succeeds ultimately on one issue or point but loses on number of other issues or points which were unnecessarily raised, costs must be appropriately apportioned. Special reasons must be assigned if costs are not being awarded. Costs should be assessed according to rules in force. If any of the parties has unreasonably protracted the proceedings, the judge should consider exercising discretion to impose exemplary costs after taking into account the expense incurred for the purpose of attendance on the adjourned dates.

Proceedings for perjury	11	If the Trial Judge, while delivering the judgment, is of the view that any of the parties or witnesses have willfully and deliberately uttered blatant falsehoods, he shall consider (at least in some grave cases) whether it is a fit case where prosecution should be initiated for perjury and order prosecution accordingly.
Adjournments	12	The amendments to the Code have restricted the number of adjournments to three in the course of hearing of the suit, on reasonable cause being shown. When a suit is listed before a Court and any party seeks adjournments, the Court shall have to verify whether the party is seeking adjournment due to circumstances beyond the control of the party, as required by clause (b) of proviso to Rule 2 of Order XVII. The Court shall impose costs as specified in Rule 2 of Order XVII.
MISC	ELL	ANEOUS APPLICATIONS
	13	The proceedings in a suit shall not be stayed merely because of the filing of Miscellaneous Application in the course of suit unless the Court in its discretion expressly thinks it necessary to stay the proceedings in the suit.

FIRST APP	EAL	S TO SUBORDINATE COURTS
Service of Notice of Appeal	14	 First Appeals being appeals on question of fact and law, courts are generally inclined to admit the appeal and it is only in exceptional cases that the appeal is rejected at the admission stage under Rule 11 of Order XLI CPC. In view of the amended CPC, a copy of the memorandum of appeal is required to be filed in the subordinate Courts. It is clarified that the requirement of filing a copy of appeal memorandum in the sub-ordinate Court does not mean that appeal memorandum cannot be filed in the Appellate Court immediately for obtaining interim orders. Advance notice should simultaneously be given by the counsel for the party, who is proposing to file the appeal, to the counsel for the opposite party who appeared in the Subordinate Court so as to enable the respondents to appear if they so choose, even at the first hearing stage.
Essential Documents to be filed with the Memorandum of Appeal	15	The Appellant shall, as far as possible, file, along with the appeal, copies of essential documents marked in the suit for the purpose of enabling the appellate court to understand the points raised or for purpose of passing interim orders.
Fixation of time limits in	16	Whenever notice is issued by the appellate Court in interlocutory matters, the notice

interlocutory		should indicate the date by which the reply interlocutory matters		should indicate the date by which the reply should be filed. The rejoinder, if any, should be filed within four weeks of receipt of the reply. If there are more parties than one who are respondents, each one of the respondent should comply with this requirement within the time limit and the rejoinder may be filed within four weeks from the receipt of the last reply.
Steps for	17	The appeal shall be listed before the Court completion of all		Officer for completion of all formalities formalities/(Call		necessary before the appeal is taken up for Work) (Hajri)		final hearing. The procedure indicated above of listing the case before a senior officer of the appellate court for giving dates in routine matter must be followed to reduce the 'call work' (Hajri) and only where judicial orders are necessary such cases should be listed before Court.
Procedure on grant of Interim-orders	18	 If an interim order is granted at the first hearing by the Court, the respondents would have the option of moving appropriate applications for vacating the interim order even before the returnable date indicated in the notice and if such an application is filed, it shall be listed as soon as possible even before the returnable date. If the Court passes an ad-interim exparte order and if the reply is filed by the respondents and if, without good reason, the appellant fails to file the rejoinder, Court shall consider whether it is a fit case for vacating the stay or interim order and list the case for that purpose. This is intended to see that those who have obtained ad interim orders do not procrastinate in filing replies. The appellant may also waive his right to file the rejoinder. Such choice shall be conveyed to the Court Officer on or before the date fixed for filing of rejoinder. Such communication of option by the applicant to the Court Officer will be deemed to be completion of pleadings.

Filing of Written Submissions	19	 Both the appellants and the respondents shall submit their written submissions two weeks before the commencement of the arguments in the appeal. The cause list should indicate if written submissions have been filed or not. Wherever they have not been filed, the Court must insist on their being filed within a particular period to be fixed by the Court and each party must serve a copy thereof on the opposite side before the date of commencement of arguments. There is no question of parties filing replies to each other's written submissions. The Court may consider having a Caution List/Alternative List to take care of eventualities when a case does not go on before a court and those cases may be listed before a Court where for any reason the scheduled cases are not taken up for hearing.
Costs	20	Awarding of costs must be treated generally as mandatory in as much as it is the liberal attitude of the Courts in not awarding costs that has led to frivolous points being raised in appeals or frivolous appeals being filed in the courts. Costs should invariably follow the event and reasons must be assigned by the appellate Court for not awarding costs. If any of the parties have unreasonably protracted the proceedings, the judge shall have the discretion to impose exemplary costs after taking into account the costs that may have been imposed at the time of adjournments.

tition 21 The Practice/ directions in regard to Original Suits should mutatis mutandis apply in

Application/petition under special Acts

The Practice/ directions in regard to Original Suits should mutatis mutandis apply in respect of such applications/petitions filed under Special Acts like the Industrial Disputes Act, Hindu Marriage Act, Indian Succession Act.
